

Follow Their Example

The Bible is chalked full of men and women who chose to obey God and His Word. Their lives serve as an example to those of us who aim to live for God—with Jesus setting the perfect standard above them all.

If you want to know what it looks like to choose God and His ways, I'd encourage you to read and learn more about each one of these individuals. They weren't perfect, but they were people who chose God.

Of course this isn't an exhaustive list, but it's a good starting place.

Let their lives inspire, encourage, and motivate you to say yes to God and His Word. Yes, when it's hard. Yes, when you're fearful. Yes, when it will cost you something. Yes, when you don't have all the answers. And yes, when you're the only one saying yes.

Choosing obedience to God and His Word is always the right answer. And it just may be, that as you choose to live a life of obedience to God, like these men and women, you may become an example for others too.

FOLLOW THEIR EXAMPLES

AND CHOOSE OBEDIENCE TO GOD AND HIS WORD

Noah obeyed all that God commanded him and built an ark (Genesis 6-9).

Caleb believed God for the Promised Land (Numbers 13-14).

Phinehas was zealous for God (Numbers 25).

Rahab chose the Lord (Joshua 2 & 6).

Mary birthed Jesus (Luke 2).

Moses led God's people (Exodus 14).

Mordecai and Esther saved God's people (Book of Esther).

Jesus died for our sins (John 18-21).

Paul preached Jesus (Acts 8 & 9).

Ruth joined God's people (Book of Ruth).
